

Boston University College of Health &
Rehabilitation Sciences
Sargent College Alumni Association with the Massachusetts ME/CFS & FM Assoc.

INVITE YOU TO A SCREENING OF

UNREST

A Sundance and Boston Globe (GlobeDocs) award-winning film short-listed for an Oscar

Wednesday, October 10th, 5:30-8 pm

(doors open & light refreshments at 5 pm)

Tsai Performance Center
685 Commonwealth Ave, Boston

“Riveting...equal parts medical mystery, science lesson, political advocacy primer and even a love story.” -- San Francisco Chronicle

Opening Remarks: Karen Jacobs, EdD, OT, OTR, CPE, FAOTA, Occupational Therapy Professor/ Post-professional OTD Program Director, Sargent College.

Moderator: Kimberly Sullivan, Ph.D. Dir., Gulf War Illness Consortium, BU School of Public Health;

Panelists: Jeanne Hubbuch, MD, physician treating ME/CFS for decades; Michael VanElzakker, PhD, neuroscientist/researcher, Mass General Hospital & Harvard Med School; Individuals with ME/CFS

UNREST sheds light on the hidden lives of 1-2.5 million Americans disabled by ME/CFS (Myalgic Encephalomyelitis/Chronic Fatigue Syndrome) a chronic, debilitating, multi-system illness. The film director was so severely affected, she had to direct the movie mostly from bed. Trailer: www.unrest.film

Open to the BU Community and the public, including healthcare providers, scientists, researchers

RSVP: <https://bit.ly/2Q7R62H>

Questions & Accommodations: Events@MassMECFS.org // (617) 471-5559

More info about ME/CFS: www.MassMECFS.org

Recent media attention: Boston Globe, NPR's Here and Now, NPR's Science Friday, Cosmopolitan, Today Show, New York Times, Nature, Journal of NY State Academy of Family Physicians and more.

Video of a similar event hosted by Mass. Dept. of Public Health:

<https://www.massmecfs.org/about-us/30-news/694-new-videos-are-posted>

Boston University College of Health
& Rehabilitation Sciences: Sargent College

