

MGH INSTITUTE
OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS

INVITATION

On January 15th, 2019, MGH Institute of Health Professions invites the public, health care providers, and researchers to learn about the debilitating disease Myalgic Encephalomyelitis/Chronic Fatigue Syndrome (ME/CFS), which disables 1-2.5 million Americans. NO registration required – just come!

The MGH Institute of Health Professions invites the public, healthcare providers and researchers to the 2019 Ann W. Caldwell President's Lecture: Interprofessional Rounds.

Program moderator:

Ronald G Tompkins, MD, ScD, Director, MGH Center for Surgery, Innovation & Bioengineering.

Panelists include patient advocates from the Massachusetts ME/CFS & FM Association.

Tues., Jan. 15th, 2019, 5:30–7:00 p.m. (doors open 5 pm)
Northeastern University
Blackman Auditorium, 342 Huntington Ave (Ell Hall), Boston.

This year's topic is

“Invisible Disability: Providing Compassionate Care for a Person with ME/CFS”

Join us for an excerpt of the Sundance award-winning film UNREST, chronicling the hidden lives of patients, followed by a discussion with an MGH researcher, a healthcare provider and patient advocates from the Massachusetts ME/CFS & FM Association. This program will inspire you to bring a new awareness about ME/CFS back to your clinical practice.

To learn more about this event: <https://www.mghihp.edu/ann-w-caldwell-presidents-lecture-interprofessional-rounds>

To learn more about ME/CFS: <https://www.massmecfs.org/>

Join us for the Ann W. Caldwell President's Lecture:
Interprofessional Rounds

Invisible Disability: Providing Compassionate Care for a Person with ME/CFS

Excerpt of award-winning film, Unrest, followed by discussion with Myalgic Encephalomyelitis/Chronic Fatigue Syndrome patients, researcher and healthcare provider.

Program Moderator, Ronald G Tompkins, MD, ScD
Director, MGH Center for Surgery, Innovation & Bioengineering

Free Admission

Tuesday, January 15, 2019

5:30-7:00 pm (Doors open at 5:00 PM)

Northeastern University

Blackman Auditorium

342 Huntington Ave (Ell Hall), Boston

MGH INSTITUTE
OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS
A graduate school founded by Massachusetts General Hospital